THIS MONTH WE ARE FEATURING
INSULTS. I
HOPE YOU
STUPID CLODS
ENJOY THEM.

A young man was out with his girl friend. He saw a scale that gives your fortune, as well as your weight. He got on the scale, and read his fortune. "It says here that I'm witty, charming, smart, and handsome," he said.

"Let me see that," the girl said. "Look, they got your weight wrong too."

A driver barely missed hitting a man who was crossing the street. "Watch out!" the driver yelled at the man.

"Why?" the man asked. "Are you coming back?"

Singing Student: Professor, do you think I'll ever be able to do something with my voice?

Professor: It might come in handy in case of a fire.

"Darling," the girl whispered. "When did you first know you loved me?"

The boy thought for a moment. Then he said, "When I began getting mad at people who said you were stupid and ugly."

A father asked his daughter to bring her steady boy friend in to see him. A month went by, and nothing happened. Finally, he said, "Didn't you ask Mel to see me?"

"Yes," she said. "He said he had seen you several times, but he loved me just the same!"

Oliver: Mom, will you do my arithmetic for me?

Mother: No, Oliver it wouldn't be right.

Oliver: Well, you could at least try.

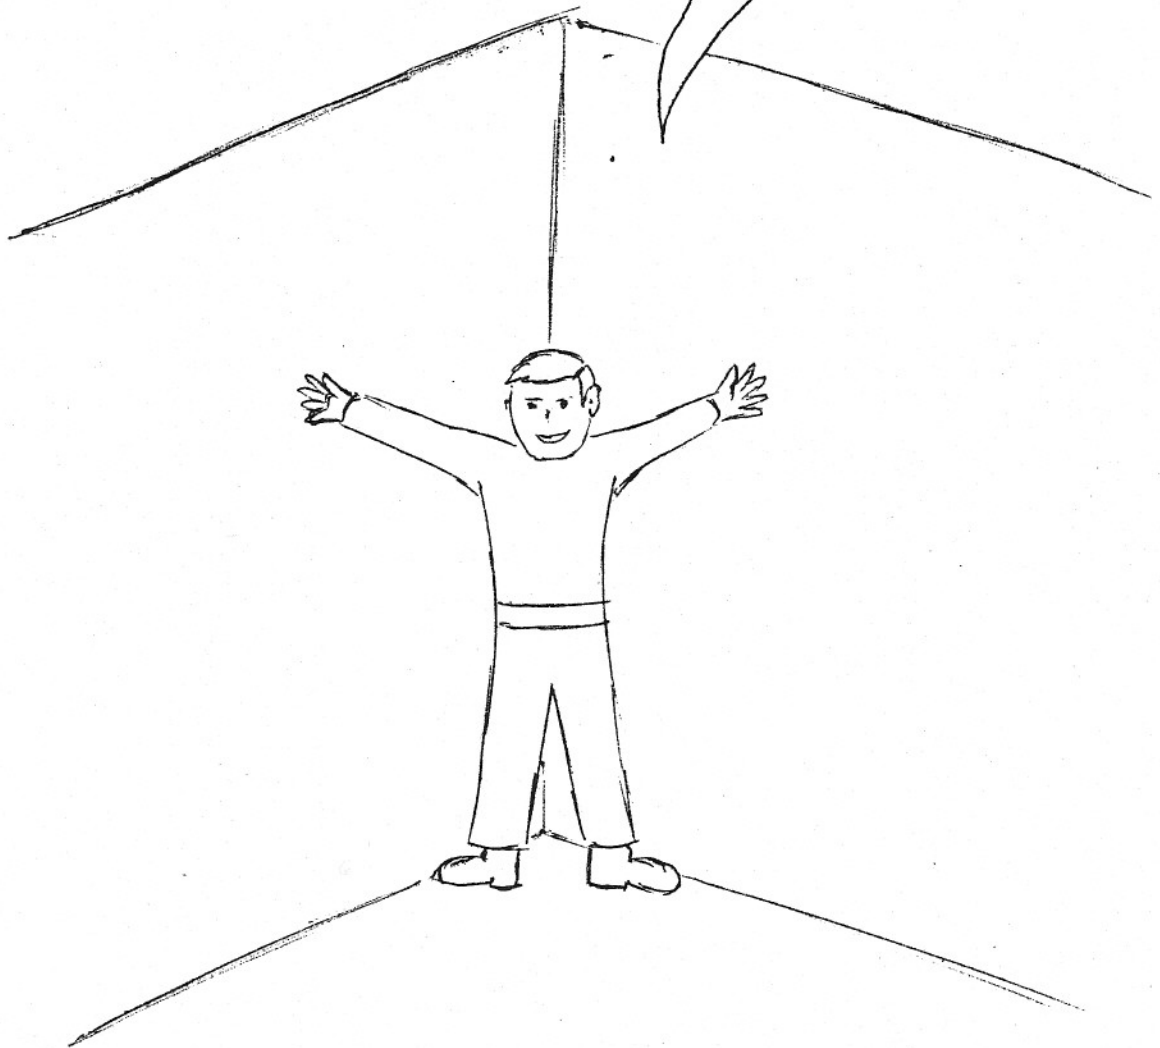

She is so skinny that a dog tried ~~to~~ to bury her in the backyard.

He is so skinny that when he turns sideways and sticks out his tongue he looks like a zipper.

She's so skinny that when she turns sideways and drinks red punch she looks like a thermometer.

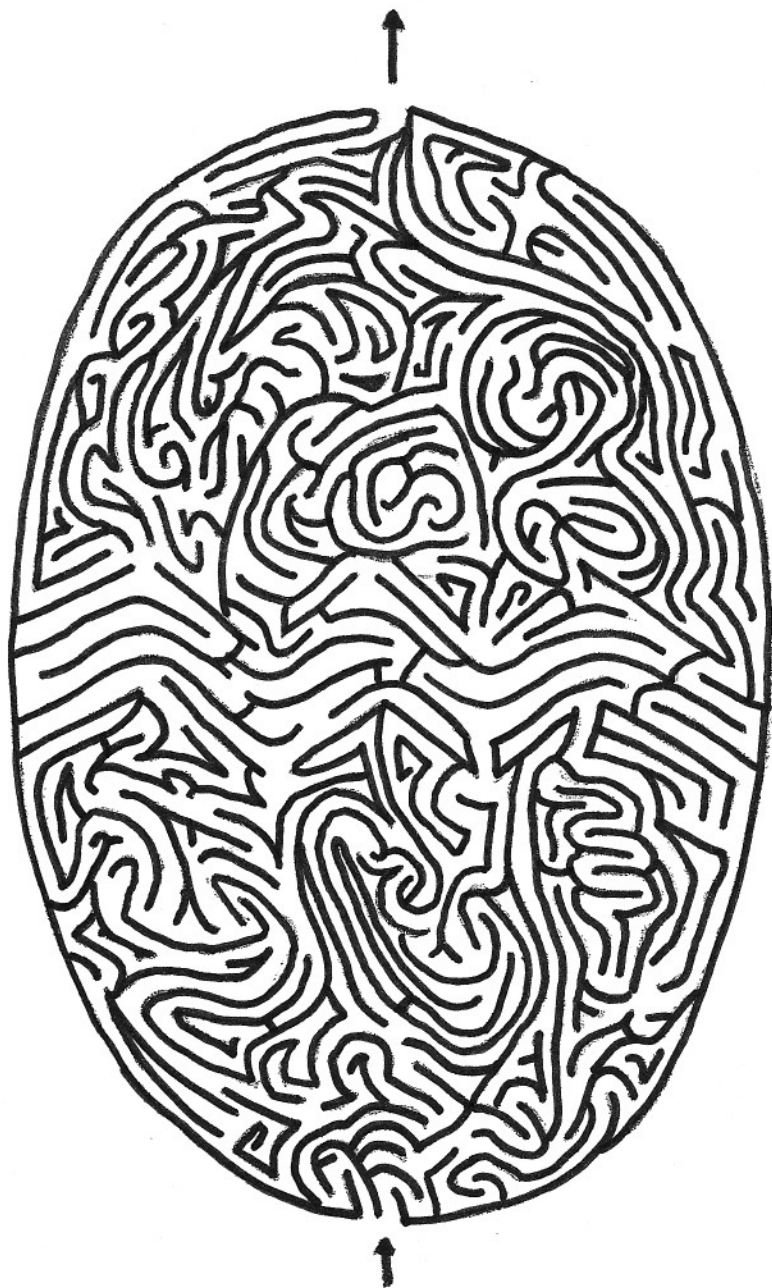

She has long flowing blond hair... from each nostril.

HI! I'M ART AND

RABERT THE EASTER BUNNY

Once upon a time there was a rabbit named Rabert who was very mean. In fact, if you recall, it was he who had jumped up and down on Steve Hilly Sprite before he became the bionic turtle, (Steve Hilly Sprite, not Rabert). Well anyway, Rabert was real nervous, (in fact he was jumpy). The reason he was this way was he was the Easter Bunny, and he had a problem, (see picture below). His problem was that he just couldn't seem to lay any eggs so that he could give them ^{out} when Easter came around, (he was kind of a jerk). Rabert then went to the dairy to get some eggs. He didn't find any eggs, but he did meet some cows. From them he learned why men that like cows are liked by women. It was because they can sit under a full moon, they have a lot of moola, and they'll take women to moovies. Then it happened, Rabert asked what mootivates cows to say things like this, and with that joke he laid an egg. So he said that joke a couple hundred times, (see 2nd picture below), and his problems were solved.
